President's Message

by GUY A. RIBANDO, DDS

THOUGHTS AT TERM'S END

As the saying goes, "Nothing lasts forever," and so it is with my term as president. As I look back over the past year, it was not difficult at all. I recall being very anxious about being president and yet it was not a difficult job. Mona Whittington encouraged me by saying it was "easy" and I often kidded her that she lied. I must admit that she was right.

I recall that in recent years it has been difficult to get people to assume leadership roles in NODA and now after a year has passed it seems that has changed. Our new president, Dr. Roethle, is a great leader and we can expect much from him. I am also happy that he will have an energetic and very capable person to follow him in Dr. Carol Stuckey as president-elect.

One of my goals on assuming the presidency was to set up a Missionary Dentistry Committee during my term. I have, along with consultation with Drs. Arrington, Gaubert, and Cowley, listed below the objective and rules by which the committee will operate. Since the budget committee has to meet in the coming months, the funding will not be available for this year. This committee will be in full operation and effective as of January 1, 2001.

Missionary Dentist Committee

The objective of this committee is to offer support and encouragement to those dentists who give of their time and talents for those people in need of their help. The means of support can be in any of the three ways outlined below:

1. Material support in the form of dental supplies, such as needles, syringes, sponges, medicines, and any other materials as needed.
2. Monetary support for other supplies or to pay for transportation and/or cost of room and board.
3. Volunteering of time and service to areas of need.

NODA News is published every month with the exception of June and August. Deadline for ads and editorial material is the 5th of the month preceding publication. Ads and news should be sent to Dr. Kristi Soileau, 2820 Napoleon Ave., Suite 470, New Orleans, LA 70115.

NODA News is a publication of the New Orleans Dental Assn., 2121 N. Causeway Blvd., Suite 153, Metairie, LA 70001. Phone (504) 834-6449.

Committee will have formulated simple rules to apply to the above.

1. Time of application for the above: last 90 days of the year (Oct.-Nov.-Dec.) for any time in the coming year (January through December).

2. Those who apply will be treated equally at the end of the period of application and all supplies and money divided equally. Three people (dentists apply), all supplies-divided three ways-same applies to money.

3. Committee to ask NODA for $1,000.00 for committee on yearly basis.

4. Committee to ask for donations through NODA News. Donations for this committee in the form of: Equipment that can be used; dental supplies and monetary donations. This will be in every issue of NODA News with committee members' names and phone numbers to accept such and store.

Tentative Committee Members: David Arrington 340-9207, Jimmy Gaubert 368-4907, Guy Ribando 341-3120. Anyone else interested can join this committee.

Finally, I would like to take this opportunity to thank those people who served as my committee chairpersons for being such good workers for our organization and our profession as a whole. I also pledge to my successors any and all the support I can give to keep organized dentistry healthy and strong for those who come after us.

Truly Yours,
G. A. Ribando, DDS

Dr. Cassingham named Honor Dentist

A longtime LSUSD professor who had a distinguished dental career in three states has been honored with NODA's Honor Dental Award.

Dr. R. Jack Cassingham has served as president of both the New Orleans and Louisiana Dental associations. He has held numerous high-level posts in both associations, while making many friends in the area and achieving a commendable record in public service and civic affairs.

Mr. Cassingham, a familiar face at virtually every dental function, unfortunately won't be on hand to accept the Honor Dentist Award at the Installation Dinner March 18. A world traveler, he is currently overseas.

The genial professor came to Louisiana in 1974, joining LSUSD's faculty after teaching posts at Indiana University School of Dentistry and Creighton University in Omaha. A private practitioner in Indiana before entering teaching, he served as secretary-treasurer of the Wabash Valley Dental Society and member of the Indiana Dental Association House of Delegates as well as an alternate delegate to the ADA.

In Nebraska, where he was chairman of periodontics at Creighton, he was secretary of the Omaha Dental Society and a member of the Nebraska House of Delegates.

In 1974 he accepted a position at LSU where he taught periodontics for 20 years and served twice as acting department head and graduate periodontics director. Upon retirement he was appointed Professor Emeritus by LSU president Allen Copping.

Throughout his career in Louisiana he has been active in national dental affairs. He has been a delegate to the ADA, served a four-year term on the Council on Dental Therapeutics, and held posts in the American Association of Dental Schools.

A highlight of Dr. Cassingham's career came in 1980 when as chairman of NODA's Council on Dental Health he organized the effort to appear before the Jefferson Parish Council which resulted in controlled fluoridation of Jefferson Parish water.

DR. CASSINGHAM

He is a past president of the Louisiana chapter of the International College of Dentists, received the Distinguished Clinician Award as voted by the LSUSD Class of 1987, and received the LDA Distinguished Service Award in 1997.

Dr. Cassingham is married to the former Mary Lou Holt of Kokomo, Ind., and proudly states: "Mary Lou worked as a school teacher to put me through all four years of dental school." Mary Lou subsequently earned a law degree from Loyola and recently retired as a law clerk with the Louisiana Supreme Court.

They are the parents of four sons: Dr. Scott F., Major Jack H., Guy H., and Lee J. They have five grandchildren.

In the community Dr. Cassingham has served as a Scoutmaster, Cub Scout Packmaster, and Dentistry Explorer Post Advisor. In the Aurora United Methodist Church he has served as trustee, chairman of the staff/parish relations committee and currently serves on the Conference Board of Global Ministries.

Dr. Bob Hess wins Distinguished Dentist Award

The Louisiana section of the Pierre Fauchard Academy has presented Dr. Robert Hesse of Lafayette its 1999 Distinguished Dentist Award in recognition of his leadership and professionalism in dentistry.

Dr. Francis Martello, chair of the academy's Louisiana section, announced the award. Among the many roles in dentistry he has assumed, Dr. Hesse was chair of the Louisiana section of the academy for 8½ years, president of the Acadiana District Dental Association and charter president of the Evangeline Dental Study Club.

A fellow of the American College of Dentists, he was chair of the Louisiana Dental Association Manpower Committee, and member of the LDA Education Committee, Distinguished Dentist Committee, ad hoc committee to study the executive office, Council on Dental Health, and Council on Dental Care. His commitment to dental education extended to his tenure as chair of continuing education for the Louisiana Academy of General Dentistry. He was program chair for the AGD and served on its board of directors.

For his commitment to organized dentistry in Louisiana and to his community, he received the 1993 LDA Distinguished Service Award.

EVENT SET FOR MARCH 31

LSU Alumni Day to have new look

The LSU School of Dentistry Alumni Association Annual Alumni Day, Friday, March 31, takes a striking turn this year for its alumni and friends to earn CE. A point-counterpoint format pits well-known faculty members in debate on the finer points of their specialties.

Drs. Gerard Chiche and John Burgess, heads of the departments of prosthodontics and operative dentistry respectively, will debate adhesive bonding techniques. Drs. Lisa German of the endo department and Doug Dederich, head of perio, will square off on endo/perio relationships, and Drs. Ron Lemon and Burgess will consider the nuances of bleaching.

Dr. Brian Muzyka of oral diagnosis, medicine and radiology will discuss the pros and cons of antibiotics, and Dr. Janet Leigh of general dentistry the highly charged and varied issues of HIV in dentistry.

These give-and-take discussions and presentations on current issues in dentistry will make alumni day exciting and diverse.

Even lunch has a spark. The annual LSUSD student table clinic competition will take place at lunch so that alums and friends can see the research their future colleagues are pursuing. Students get to meet those who came before them and who are where students hope soon to be.

The 27th LSUSD Alumni Day is open to all dentists, dental hygienists, dental laboratory technologists, and postgraduates. It costs $65 for dentists, $45 for auxiliaries, and $35 for LSUSD faculty and table-clinic judges. Breakfast, lunch, and a wine-and-cheese reception at the end of the day are included. To register or to get more info, call CE, (504) 619-8584, or go online at www.lsusd.lsumc.edu/ce/.

State reduces Medicaid rates

BY DR. ROBERT E. BARSLEY

Secretary of the Louisiana Department of Health and Hospitals, David Hood, has announced that due to projected overspending in this fiscal year coupled with projected state revenue shortfalls in the next fiscal year that Medicaid reimbursements in all Medicaid programs would be reduced.

One Emergency Rule states that effective for dates of service February 1, 2000 and after, the E.P.S.D.T. (Children's) Dental Program will reimburse at a maximum rate of 7% less than the previously published maximum for all covered procedure codes.

Another Emergency Rule eliminates the Adult Denture Program for dates of service February 21, 2000 or later.

Representatives of the LDA met with Sec. Hood in late January to discuss these Emergency Rules and explore options. However, none could be agreed upon. The LDA on February 8 wrote Sec. Hood expressing strong disapproval of the cuts. Nationwide many other states either have already or plan to substantially increase reimbursements in their E.P.S.D.T.

dental programs in order to encourage more dentists to treat eligible children.

On the adult front, elderly advocacy groups have mobilized to restore the denture program in Louisiana.

Persons seeking to register disapproval of these actions should address comments to the Legislature and the governor. Dentists desiring to withdraw from the Medicaid program should fax a signed statement of withdrawal to Medicaid Provider Enrollment at (225) 342-3893 and include the reason(s) for such action.

Since 1994 over 200 fewer Louisiana dentists are actively treating Medicaid-eligible patients. The Department also recently disenrolled approximately 800 additional dentists who had not filed a claim for payment in over 12 months.

If you have questions or comments, please contact Dr. Barsley at (504) 619-8589.

LAB RECOGNIZED

The LSU School of Dentistry Oral Pathology Laboratory has received accreditation from the Commission on Laboratory Accreditation of the College of American Pathologists.

"The accreditation means that LSUSD has a state-of-the-art lab," Dr. Jim Weir, head of the department and director of the laboratory, said. "We can process and perform special procedures on biopsies from anywhere in the United States."

ADA seeks foreign service nominees

The Council on ADA Sessions and International Programs has requested NODA's cooperation in its effort to increase the awareness of the Certificate of Recognition for Volunteer Service in a Foreign Country among Association members. There has already been a great deal of interest in this program, but to broaden its outreach to more prospective nominees, the Council seeks to publicize the award and encourage applicants.

Next deadline for submitting nominations for the Certificate Program is April 15, 2000. Dental society officers and deans are asked to sign the nomination form.

The recipient must be a member of the ADA, must serve for a minimum of 14 days in a given 24-month period, must supply evidence of the value of his or her service, must give a comprehensive and detailed breakdown of his other activities and must be nominated by his or her constituent or component dental society or federal dental service. Dental students must be nominated by their dental school.

The Council encourages members to play an active role and share in this program to honor colleagues for their concern and generous humanitarian service.
